CASE NO. 4:05-cv-04707 PJH

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
ORDER ENTERING CONSENT
JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

Hon. Phyllis J. Hamilton

Pursuant to Northern District Civil Local Rules 7-1(a)(5) and 7-12, as well as Fed.R.Civ.P. 58 and 65, Plaintiff Genmark Automation, Inc. ("Genmark") and Defendant
Innovative Robotics Systems, Inc. ("IRSI" or "Defendant"), jointly submit this stipulation

1 requesting an Order from this Court (1) entering a final consent judgment in this action and (2) a
2 permanent injunction against any further infringement by Defendant of Genmark's patent rights.

3 BACKGROUND

4 This is a patent infringement action commenced on November 16, 2005 by Genmark
5 against defendant IRSI involving U.S. Patent No. 5,789,890 (the "'890 patent"); U.S. Patent
6 No. 6,037,733 (the "'733 patent"); and U.S. Patent No. 6,121,743 (the "'743 patent")
7 (collectively, the "patents-in-suit"). The patents-in-suit generally relate to robots and robotic
8 arms. IRSI answered the complaint and filed a counterclaim ("Counterclaim") to which 9 Genmark has filed a reply. The Complaint and Counterclaim are referred to herein as the 10 "Action."

11 Genmark is the owner of all rights, title, and interest in U.S. Patent No. 5,789,890 (the 12 "'890 patent"); U.S. Patent No. 6,037,733 (the "'733 patent"); and U.S. Patent No. 6,121,743
13 (the "'743 patent"), issued August 4, 1998, March 14, 2000 and September 19, 2000,
14 respectively.

15 Genmark and IRSI have now reached an agreement to resolve this matter by the entry of 16 this consent final judgment and permanent injunction. A stipulation to that effect and proposed 17 order are set out below.

18 STIPULATION REGARDING CONSENT JUDGMENT

19 AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

20 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by and between the parties, and through their respective 21 attorneys of record that:

- 22 1. this Court should enter a consent final judgment incorporating the following:
 - 23 a. this Court has jurisdiction over Genmark and IRSI, as well as over the 24 subject matter of this patent infringement action.
 - 25 b. Venue is proper in this Court.
 - 26 c. Defendant IRSI acknowledges and admits that the patents-in-suit are 27 owned by Genmark and are valid and enforceable in all respects.

1 d. Defendant IRSI, commencing no later than November 16, 2004, engaged
2 in acts of manufacture, use, sale, and offer for sale in the United States of the IR-820 Series, IR-
3 820, IR-822, IR-825, and the IR-828 robots which infringed Claims 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 10, 11 and 31 of 4 the '890 patent including the reexamined claims; Claims 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 19, 20, 21 and 22 of
5 the '733 patent including the reexamined claims; and Claims 1, 2, 5, 9, 10 and 14 of the '743
6 patent including the reexamined claims.

7 e. Final Judgment is therefore entered in favor of Genmark and against 8 Defendant IRSI. IRSI's Counterclaim to the Complaint and any and all defenses to the 9 allegations of the First Amended Complaint, whether in law or in equity, are dismissed with 10 prejudice. Defendant acknowledges and agrees that this Final Judgment and Permanent 11 Injunction is binding upon it, its current employees, officers, directors, managing agents and 12 owners and constitutes res judicata between the Parties. Defendant IRSI further waives all right
13 to appeal from this Final Judgment. Genmark waives all right to recover damages against 14 Defendant IRSI for infringement of the patents-in-suit by IRSI which occurred prior to the 15 effective date of this Permanent Injunction.

16 f. Each party shall bear its own costs and attorney's fees.

17 2. the Court shall also enter a permanent injunction with the following provisions:

18 a. Defendant IRSI is permanently restrained, enjoined and prohibited from 19 further infringement of the patents-in-suit, and from manufacturing, importing, using, selling,
20 and/or offering for sale the IR-820 Series, IR-820, IR-822, IR-825, and the IR-828 robots or any 21 parts of sub-systems thereof, in the United States for the duration of time that the '890, '733 and 22 '744 patents remain in force and in effect.

23 b. Defendant IRSI is enjoined from directly or indirectly aiding or 24 participating in any action contesting the validity or enforceability of the '890, '733 and '744
25 patents or any claim thereof including any reexamined claim in any tribunal or forum.

1 c. This Permanent Injunction is effective seven (7) calendar days following
2 the date of the order entered by this Court and IRSI waives notice of this Permanent Injunction
3 upon it.
